Strategic Planning Process Update

The Strategic Planning Team for the Episcopal Church of the Annunciation has been working diligently to process all the input we've gathered, including the parish-wide survey and interviews of both members and key leaders in our community. After spending two days on retreat, the team has established the following five strategic priorities for the next three to five years. You will be hearing more about these priorities over the next few weeks. We invite you to contact the team leaders if you are interested in assisting them in their endeavors.

Strategic Priority #1:
Form small groups for the entire membership to meet on a regular basis.
Leaders: Jennifer Luthe and Jennifer Williams

Strategic Priority #2:
Increase operating budget to hire a full-time assistant clergy person with the potential to develop a bilingual ministry in our community.
Leaders: Ron Duncan and Bill Behrens

Strategic Priority #3:
Expand offerings to meet the mental, physical, and spiritual needs of our community.
Leaders: Lorie Grant and Pam Behrens

Strategic Priority #4:
Develop and communicate a master plan for the Parish Hall rebuild.
Leaders: Laura Braun and Blake Wyne

Strategic Priority #5:
Develop a plan by which we annually evaluate opportunities to serve our community.
Leaders: Sebastian Campbell, Joanne Teeters, and Michael Anderson

Celebrant The Lord be with you

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from the First Book of Kings

(19:15-16, 19-21)

The LORD said to Elijah, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place." So he set out from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?" He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

Psalm 16

8:30 a.m. spoken ~ 11:00 a.m. sung by the choir

- 1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; *
 I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord,
 my good above all other."
- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, *
 upon those who are noble among the people.
- 3 But those who run after other gods *
 shall have their troubles multiplied.
- 4 Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
 nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
- 5 O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; *
 it is you who uphold my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
 indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; *
 my heart teaches me, night after night.
- 8 I have set the LORD always before me; *
 because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
 my body also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
 nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of life; *
 in your presence there is fullness of joy,
 and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

Giving to our Legacy Fund

In 2021, for the 60th anniversary of the founding of our church, we received nearly $9,000 to assist Annunciation in our mission to grow in love of God and love of neighbor. In this, our 61st year, we hope that you will choose to support the financial and physical well-being of our church by donating to our Legacy Fund.

The Legacy Fund was established in 2018 to meet three identified needs: to lower the cost of our high school youth mission trip, making it affordable for all; to provide for capital improvement projects beyond our operating budget; and to provide seed money to start new ministries.

Your giving to the Legacy Fund will provide for the future life and ministry of Annunciation. Your witness will also encourage others to leave an enduring legacy. We will celebrate your commitment, as we invite others to join with us in giving to the Legacy Fund both now and in the future.

You may place your contribution in the offering plate. Please remember to include "Legacy Fund" in the memo line of your check. Or you could use the QR code included here. If you would like to include the Legacy Fund in your estate planning and would like additional information on how to do so, please contact the church office.

NEW MEMBERS CLASS

July 10

A New Member Class with Mother Catherine is scheduled for Sunday, July 10, at 12:30 pm in the Oratory Chapel. If you are interested in becoming a member, or learning more about our life as a community of faith, please join us. We will cover all aspects of our life together, including how to connect with other members. If you have any questions, please see Mother Catherine or contact the church office.

SOLES4SOULS

OUR SOLES4SOULS ANNUAL PROJECT!

Bring your gently worn shoes for our Annual Soles4Souls Outreach Project! We are collecting shoes in the Narthex in the Soles4Souls collection boxes. We need all types, sizes and seasons of men, women and children's shoes. This is our EIGHTH YEAR! Last year we received close to 3,000 pairs of shoes, and we would like to pass that goal this year. Soles4Souls assists people in the USA and other countries in need.

Shoes will be collected through June 30.

THANK YOU, VOLUNTEERS

Annunciation has teamed up with the Salvation Army-Lewisville & local Faith-Net churches to provide sack lunches this summer. We hosted June 6-10 where our amazing volunteers made & packed 500 nutritious lunches! Annunciation's next host week is July 11-15. If you'd like to volunteer, please email outreach@annunciationlewisville.org

A Reading from the Book of Galatians

(5:1, 13-25)

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

(9:51-62)

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

People The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Christ

The Sermon Michael Anderson, Ph.D.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, Presiding Bishop; George, our Bishop and for all bishops and other ministers.

For all who serve God in his Church.

Holy Healing: The Path to Wholeness and Health

What can Scripture teach us about our mental and physical health? How can we strengthen our faith as we work towards being the best versions of ourselves in Christ? This summer, we will be offering a variety of classes for all ages meant to focus on our whole selves: mind, body and spirit. We hope you will participate in these offerings as a way of healing from all we suffered during the pandemic, as well as creating new and healthier habits to handle difficult times that may come in the future. The offerings for June are as follows.

June 26th

Holy Hike

Postponed due to extreme heat**

July 10th

Walk the Labyrinth

The labyrinth is an ancient spiritual tool designed to foster contemplation and spiritual transformation. Walked by contemplatives and lay people alike for centuries, labyrinths are formed as a circle with a singular path leading to a center. It is not a maze to be solved, as there is only one path in and one path out. Rather it serves as an opportunity to bring quiet to our minds and be attentive to our souls as we walk towards the very heart of God. We will have a canvas labyrinth available for everyone to walk in the Parish Hall from 7:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. For those with mobility issues, there will be finger labyrinths that can be used while seated in a chair.

July 24th

Honoring the Sabbath

The EYC (Episcopal Youth for Christ) will be leading a presentation on honoring the Sabbath as God intended it. They will provide helpful information, as well as offer a few exercises we might try not only at church, but especially at home. This is a wonderful opportunity for people of all ages to take a break from the rush of daily life, and spend some quality time with God and with each other. The class will be held in the Oratory Chapel at 9:45 a.m.

August 7th

Back to School Blessings and Pancake Breakfast

As we approach another academic year, we would love for you to join us in asking for God's abundant blessings and provision on the efforts of our students, teachers and administrators over the coming year. Boy Scout Troop 114 and Cub Scouts Pack 66 will be providing a Pancake Breakfast for everyone to enjoy after all three services.

August 21st

Coping With Stress

On Sunday, August 21st, at 9:45 am, we are welcoming Danae Crume, of Khesed Wellness, to speak on best practices for families and individuals to cope with the stress of daily life. Having these tools will enable us to weather the storms, knowing that Jesus is with us every step of the way (Mark 4:35-41). Danae will give her presentation in the Oratory Chapel, and all are welcome to attend.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

High School Mission Trip

Please pray for the leaders and students who are on the High School Mission Trip in New Orleans, Louisiana this week. They will be assisting with much needed hurricane relief efforts. Please pray for their safety, and that God would show them the power of a servant's heart as they bless others through their labor, ministering to, and with, the people they meet.

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

Celebrant and People

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;

In your compassion forgive us our sins,

Known and unknown,

Things done and left undone;

And so uphold us by your Spirit

That we may live and serve you in newness of life,

To the honor and glory of your Name;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen

~ A Bouquet of Thanks to Sandy Lillycrop ~

Today is Sandy Lillycrop's last Sunday as head of the Flower Guild. For many years, she has scheduled, supported and guided her talented team of designers in their efforts to beautify our sanctuary for worship every Sunday of the year. She has ordered palms, Easter lilies, Mother's Day flowers and poinsettias. She led the special arrangements for Thanksgiving and Advent, and always made sure the arrangements were spectacular to behold. We are so grateful for her ministry, and that of our Flower Guild members. We dedicate today's flowers to the glory of God, and in thanksgiving for her years of faithful ministry among us.

Thank you, Sandy!

Lay Eucharistic Visitor Prayer

When Lay Eucharistic Visitors are sent from the table to take Communion to those who are home-bound or hospitalized, the following prayer will be said:

Celebrant: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy Gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the Communion of Christ’s Body and Blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread and one cup. Amen.

The Blessing

Closing Hymn Lead Us, Heavenly Father, Lead Us (vss. 1,3) No. 559

The Dismissal

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Postlude Toccata Robert Jones

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

No. S129

Musical notation for the Sanctus hymn, No. S129. It consists of four staves of music in G major (one sharp). The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est." The notation includes triplets and various note values.

The Celebrant continues
Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.
On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”
After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Celebrant and People Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Book of Common Prayer, page 364

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant and people

Almighty and ever living God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.
